

Important update from eBay Partner Network

View in Browser

We wanted to share an important update about the Smart Share browser extension. Starting tomorrow, February 2, you will be required to enter your ePN login details in order to access Smart Share. Once you are signed in, you can continue using the tool as normal.

In the coming weeks, we'll roll out new features to help you create and share short links and QR codes using Smart Share. These new features are part of an ongoing effort to provide our partners with the best tools for success, equipped with individual tool IDs that will help you better analyze and understand your traffic.
