The Art of David Delamare

Exclusively Licensed by Bad Monkey Productions

We are the exclusive licensing agent for David Delamare and the exclusive publisher of his open edition prints. We are also the only wholesale entity authorized by David Delamare to sell his open edition prints on internet auctions. We carry David Delamare original artwork, limited edition prints, open edition prints, cards and more. We also host the official David Delamare website (the only complete source of David Delamare products.)

Copyright Concerns

At this time there are only four types of products licensed by David Delamare. Books, Prints (published by Bad Monkey Productions or Discovery Galleries), Porcelain Night Lights (manufactured by Porcelain Garden), and Greeting Cards (published by Milk & Honey). Stickers, clothing or any other items not listed here that bear David Delamare images are pirated and should be reported to us immediately. We offer a reward to the first person who locates a pirated product on the web and reports it to us. Infringers on Ebay tend to be caught quickly, so if you wish to collect a reward ($60 worth of free prints) e-mail us right away!
