Why Was My Auction Ended?

Within the guidelines of the VeRO Program, a legal rights holder can request the removal of eBay listings (active or ended) that infringe on their trademarks and copyrighted works.

VeRO Program

Easipet takes great pride in the manufacture of pet cages, beds and accessories. Maintaining the integrity of the Easipet trademark and copyrights is a priority. Easipet is a member of eBay's Verified Rights Owner Program. (VeRO). eBay's Verified Rights Owner (VeRO) Program works to ensure that items listed on eBay do not infringe upon the copyright, trademark or other intellectual property rights of third parties. This VeRO Participant page was created, as recommended by the VeRO Program, to provide you with information regarding our policies and procedures concerning our trademark and copyrights. Auctions which infringe Easipet's copyrights or trademark will be reported through eBay's VeRO Program. All infringements will be reported regardless of the intent; auctions may be cancelled for infringements that are unintentional or otherwise. We have elaborated in the following paragraphs the details of our policies related to trademark and copyright issues. If there are any further questions about Easipet's trademark or copyright policies, feel free to email us through eBay's contact system.

Easipet Trademark Information
