What Should I Do?

Stop selling unlicensed or infringing products. The continued use or sale of any unauthorized or unlicensed Langley Productions "COPS" merchandise may result in criminal prosecution and/or civil litigation against your company. Langley Productions, Inc. will go to great lengths to protect their respective rights in the Licensed Properties. Doing so not only protects and preserves the Licensors legal rights and the substantial goodwill associated with the "COPS" licensed properties, but also consumers and collectors who rely on the quality and authenticity that such goodwill creates. If you are a retailer or just a person who purchased infringing items from a manufacturer, distributor or other third party, please provide us with the contact information for such party and we will pursue the matter with them directly.
