FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Why did eBay allow me to post my auction if it is against the law?

A: eBay has indicated they are unable to conduct a comprehensive pre-screen of their auctions to account for all violations. Therefore, certain impermissible items are allowed to be listed in violation of the law.

Q: Why did my auction get shut down?

A: Most likely, your auction was shut down because it displayed unauthorized reproductions of copyrighted images or trademarks owned by Mannatech.

Q: What if I did not know I was infringing on Mannatech’s intellectual property rights?

A: You have a responsibility to ensure your actions do not violate someone else’s intellectual property rights. Innocent intent does not negate liability under state and federal copyright and trademark law.

Q: Why is Mannatech concerned with my single auction when other sellers are listing multiple auctions?

A: Mannatech takes all matters of infringement seriously regardless of the quantity of listings. Mannatech will continue to work with eBay to have all unauthorized listings removed.

Q: How do I know whether an item listed on eBay is a genuine Mannatech product?

A: The only way to ensure you are purchasing a genuine Mannatech product is to purchase it directly through a Mannatech Independent Associate or the company website, www.mannatech.com.
