Intellectual Property Infingment and Copyright Information All effects and illusions are manufactured by Master of Illusions Entertainment, and released by L2ILLUSIONS. All effects, products and illusions are sold with performance rights and are copyrighted by Peter Loughran. Illusions and effects that are intellectual property of Master of Illusions Entertainment sold by other Ebay members must sell the effect or illusion with all of the product's material that originally came with the product at the time of purchase. For instance a set of instructions for a prop or instructional video may not be sold seperately without the prop itself. Each peice of material that is included with our products are numbered to validate origin, copyright and performance rights. If an item is sold with only partial materials, the buyer will not obtain proper performance rights and will not be able to perform the illusion or effect in a live, televised or perrecorded show.
