

Mitchell Repair Information Company

Mitchell Repair Information Company creates and distributes software for the automotive repair industry. Mitchell's products range from ON-DEMAND Repair, Estimating, Heavy Truck and Transmission, to management products such as Series I and II. These products provide automotive technicians with the latest repair information in the industry, as well as help shop owners manage their business.