Copyrights & Intellectual Property: They say that "imitation is the sincerest form of flattery". We've certainly seen a number of "imitators" over the years; from businesses that present themselves as "experts" while copying our informational content, to others that steal our photographic images. We've found that this theft, while saving the "imitator" some considerable time, effort and expense, also tends to confuse the consumer.

For would be content thieves: please note that each original article and photograph on www.plumeriabay.com has a minimum value of $6000.00 (six thousand dollars). Stealing our content violates copyright law and is a Felony.

All of the photography and content (articles, extensive product descriptions, etc.) on Plumeria Bay® has been created at significant expense over many years and is wholly owned by Plumeria Bay®, Inc., or one of our manufacturers. In the case of items not manufactured by Plumeria Bay®, such as bed linens & cotton blankets, the photographic images and descriptions, if not ours, are used by permission from the manufacturer. In any event, all of the content on www.plumeriabay.com is owned by Plumeria Bay®, Inc. or, where applicable, St. Geneve, Sferra, Brahms Mount and/or Schlossberg of Switzerland, and is protected by United States copyright law. It may not be used or copied without express written permission from Plumeria Bay®, Inc., or the applicable manufacturer. If you have any questions regarding this, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely;

Steve Clay, President & Founder
