PureHealth Research participates in the eBay VeRO program and will report all infringing accounts. We will report all unauthorized use of our logos, content from our website, images, or any other copyrighted materials. We also consider any page that represents itself as an authorized dealer of PureHealth Research to be an infringement, and will take immediate action.

As a member of the eBay VeRO Program, our goal is to protect our customers from counterfeit listings and ensure everyone uses our intellectual property appropriately. This is critical to ensuring product safety and satisfaction for our customers.

PUREHEALTH RESEARCH is the owner of the product and the owner of the PUREHEALTH RESEARCH intellectual property rights.

Copyright Infringement

PureHealth Research LLC owns copyrights in photographs and other images displayed on our official PureHealth Research LLC websites and in the marketplaces where PureHealth Research LLC is an official seller. Unless granted in writing, the use of PureHealth Research copyrighted materials on eBay, including photographs, is not authorized by PureHealth Research LLC.

Why Was Your Listing Singled Out?

Due to the high volume of merchandise for sale on eBay, it is difficult to identify and remove every infringing listing. If it appears we have not yet acted against an infringing listing, that does not mean we will not act accordingly.

If you believe that your item should not have been removed, we request that you contact PureHealth Research LLC at support@purehealthresearch.com with any further questions. Please include your seller name and the listing number on the inquiry.
