OUR TRADEMARKS AND COPYRIGHTS

Our trademarks (product names), logos, and copyrights (product designs) are among Swarovski's most valuable assets. The SWAROVSKI name and trademark, and all other trademarks owned by the Swarovski companies, may be used only on finished products made or marketed by Swarovski itself. Even if an item such as a bracelet which is sold on eBay contains crystals made by Swarovski, describing that item as a "Swarovski bracelet" is misleading if the bracelet itself is not manufactured by Swarovski. Such a bracelet could properly be described as a bracelet "made with", "enhanced with" or "adorned with" Swarovski crystals. Swarovski well-known trademarks include: SWAROVSKI the Swan Logo SILVER CRYSTAL and DANIEL SWAROVSKI Even those selling jewelry containing Swarovski crystals may not use the SWAROVSKI trademark or Swarovski other trademarks without Swarovski express written consent.
