WWW.TACTICALBEARDOWNERSCLUB.COM

The Tactical Beard Owners Club (or TBOC for short) was founded in August 2011 and is the worldwide largest network of "Tactical Beard Owners". TBOC assembles hobby/sport/competition shooters, armorers, firearms and tactical gear industry workers, instructors, private or government contractors, law enforcement officers, regular armed forces or veteran military personnel and up to Tier1 soldiers from international special forces units with well known names. TBOC is a very wide ranged social club that has members from every part of the military, law enforcement and tactical industry that one can think of. TBOC sees itself as a brotherhood and network that uses online platforms like TBOC Stronghold forum and Facebook to let members make friendship with other members online and in real life. In tough professions and jobs, members receive that extra support and backup they need – especially those doing service for their countries.

Tactical Beard Owners Club is a member of eBay's VeRO program.
