

iRobot Corporation

iRobot designs, develops and sells robots that make a difference. iRobot invests significant resources to manufacture, promote and protect its products and related intellectual property. iRobot registered trademarks are protected under U.S. and international law; iRobot reserves the right to bring action against the infringement of legally protected trademarks and products.

iRobot regularly monitors the Internet, including auction sites, in order to protect its intellectual property rights. Unauthorized reselling, marketing or auctioning using iRobot copyrighted items is illegal and can result in liability for damages, criminal penalties and termination of eBay selling privileges. iRobot notifies eBay of auction listings containing unauthorized uses of iRobot copyrights and trademarks. eBay complies with iRobot's request by taking appropriate action in accordance to its user policies. This includes the removal of auctions from the eBay website that illegally offer copyrighted terms and products.

Only iRobot brand products, as supplied and distributed by iRobot Corporation, and delivered as manufactured, in the carton to the original customer purchaser, is warranted by iRobot Corporation against manufacturing defects in materials and workmanship for the qualifying limited warranty period.

iRobot Affiliate Program

If you are an online retailer and want to earn commission by selling iRobot products on your website, you may opt to participate in the iRobot Affiliate Program. iRobot selects partners based on corporate guidelines and federal law. Through the iRobot Affiliate Program, Approved Affiliates may earn cash by promoting iRobot products on their website by directing consumers from your site to the iRobot Online Store. The program is free to join and easy to use. Approved Affiliates are bound by the terms and conditions set forth in the Affiliate Agreement.

The textual, photographic, video and other multimedia products published and produced by iRobot or on iRobot.com, store.iRobot.com and elsewhere are protected under law. Anyone who, without iRobot authorization, produces, copies, distributes or displays iRobot copyrighted materials is liable for copyright infringement.
