

Nation Health MD participates in the eBay VeRO program and is committed to reporting any infringements promptly. We vigilantly monitor and report any unauthorized use of our logos, website content, images, or other copyrighted materials. Moreover, any representation of an entity as an authorized dealer of Nation Health MD without proper authorization will be swiftly addressed.

As proud members of the eBay VeRO Program, our primary objective is to safeguard our customers from counterfeit listings and ensure the proper utilization of our intellectual property. This is crucial for maintaining product authenticity and ensuring customer satisfaction.

Nation Health MD holds the ownership of the product and the associated intellectual property rights.

Copyright Infringement

Nation Health MD owns copyrights to the photographs and other images showcased on our official Nation Health MD websites and marketplaces where Nation Health MD is an official seller. Unauthorized usage of copyrighted materials, including photographs, on eBay, without written consent from Nation Health MD, is strictly prohibited.

Why Was Your Listing Targeted?

Given the extensive array of merchandise on eBay, identifying and removing every infringing listing can be challenging. However, lack of immediate action against an infringing listing does not imply non-action in the future.

Contact Nation Health MD
