

2020 EBAY GLOBAL SHIPPING PROGRAM

GSP is adding shipping capacity for the holidays

This holiday, more than ever, you deserve to have the confidence that the products you ship internationally will arrive just as planned. That's why GSP is adding our own dedicated delivery transportation to key global markets to handle the unprecedented shipping demand that is expected.

We've added dedicated transportation capacity flights to Europe for the 2020 holiday

This dedicated transportation has been introduced just for the holidays for the most popular European corridors to handle a larger volume of deliveries.

- The United Kingdom
- The Netherlands
- France
- Belgium
- Germany

We've added truck lines in Canada for the 2020 holiday

These lines have been secured to help reduce logistical delays and keep international deliveries within North America running as smooth as possible.
