As a member of the eBay VeRO Program, our goal is to protect eBay customers from unauthorized or counterfeit listings and to enforce the proper use of our intellectual property.

This is critical to ensuring product safety and satisfaction for our customers. Any listings that impermissibly use our intellectual property may be brought to the attention of eBay for further action, including the possible removal of the listing.

Trademark Infringement

SoClean, Inc. is the legal owner of SoClean® in numerous jurisdictions throughout the world. As such, SoClean, Inc. is entitled to take legal action against any unfair use of our intellectual property, rightfully and lawfully, and to prohibit others from using our registered trademark in connection to the same or similar products being offered in the jurisdictions covered by our registered trademark.

Copyright Infringement

SoClean, Inc. owns copyrights in photographs and other images displayed on our official SoClean® websites and in authorized published marketing materials. Unless granted in writing, the use of SoClean® copyrighted materials on eBay is not authorized by SoClean, Inc.

Why Was My Listing Singled Out?

Due to the high volume of merchandise for sale on eBay, it is difficult to identify and remove every infringing listing. If it appears we have not yet acted against an infringing listing, that does not mean we will not act.
